Students Discover the Future

J. Barry, B. Baker, and K. Brodecky socialized at their banquet.

Those students thinking of becoming teachers, secretaries, nurses, or homemakers, may plan for these careers through F.T.A., F.S.A., F.N.A., or F.H.A. Future Teachers organize Senior Government Day and hold a tea in appreciation of our teachers. They also are in charge of the coat check at all home basketball games. Future Secretaries explored the modern business world and viewed their competitive field by meeting other future secretaries. Hospital visits and service projects are climaxes of the year for Future Nurses. The Homemakers' chief projects were supporting Head Start and sending food to our soldiers in Vietnam.

Engaging in service projects and social events occupies most of Student Council's time. All ideas and improvements are channeled through class representatives, thus making Student Council the central core of school activity. These ideas are then delegated to the proper committees to be considered.

Pep Club—S. Croce, Treasurer; S. Swartzel, Vice-President; T. Eggert, President; J. Garver, Secretary.

V. Eady and M. McDonough earned points toward National Thespian membership by applying stage make-up to A. Kovalchik during The Man Who Came to Dinner.

L. Brown and S. Hagerman helped in Pep Club's big job of keeping the halls and gym filled with spirit signs for the weekly games.

Spirit is enthusiastic loyalty put into action; Pep Club is involved with action. Combine these two elements and you have school spirit.

Enthusiastic loyalty is also an ingredient necessary to a fine dramatic production. An outward symbol of this inward enthusiasm is membership in National Thespians or Speech and Dramatics.

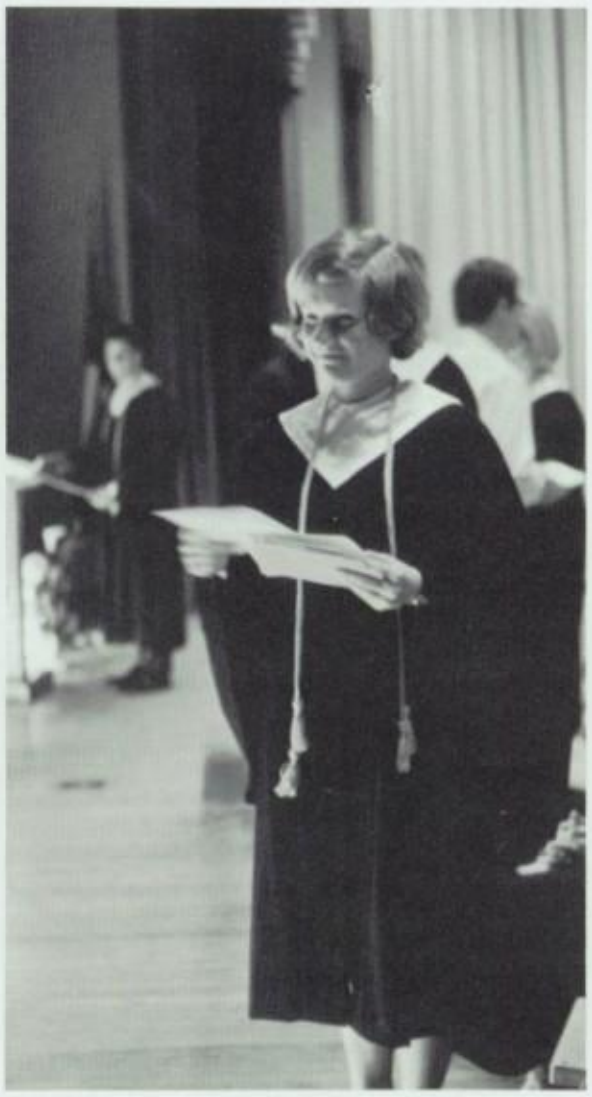
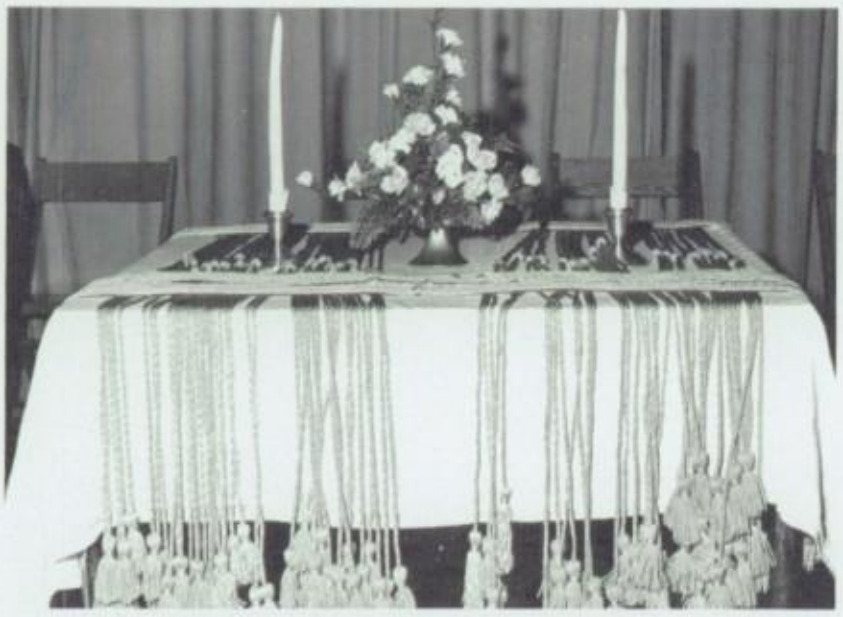
NHS Recognizes Scholarly Attitudes



Secretary K. Nicholson proudly awarded certificates to new inductees.



National traditions were upheld in the induction ceremony.

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purpose of this society . . . striving . . . to make its ideals, the ideals of my school and of my life." One of the highest honors a school can confer is awarded to top Ellet students each year. This honor is membership in the National Honor Society. The purpose of this organization is "to bear forward the searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow . . . to keep burning . . . a high ambition for the enduring value of life, and to serve in consideration of others."

The two leading athletic organizations at Ellet are Varsity "E" and G.A.A. Membership in Varsity "E" is limited to boys who have lettered in varsity sports. In June they held a picnic at Clearwater Park to celebrate the year's athletic achievements and throughout the year their projects included such things as bake sales and car washes. G.A.A. promotes sportsmanship and physical fitness for the girls at Ellet. Archery, volleyball, and basketball tournaments were activities enjoyed by the girls.

Through Profile '68, students see the product of a year's hard work. Staffers worked daily until 5:00 P.M. to put together the best yearbook Ellet has ever had. Another facet of journalism is the newspaper. Evidence of this staff's work is shown through our monthly newspaper. Areas in both publications include page layouts, headlines, pictures, and captions. The fundamentals involved in these areas are learned in the semester journalism class and summer workshops.

AN STAR

Senior Football players had the honor of escorting the attendants and Queen elected by the Ellet Student Body. Court members were Tom Saccone; Sophomore attendant, Vicki Pascu; Al Thomas; Pat Pinder; Senior attendant, June Reed; Larry Keele; Dan Tyree; Queen, Carol Wiertz; Greg Thompson; Ken Stanley; Junior attendant, Mary Lou Reed; and Jim Haylett.

Climaxing Homecoming '67, Dan Tyree, football team co-captain, crowned Carol Wiertz as our fall queen.

The 1967 Homecoming Court awaited the presentation of the Queen's trophy from the Alumni Association at the halftime of the Ellet-Stow game.

Fall Dance Brings Back Alumni

At the halftime of the Stow-Ellet game, the Queen and her attendants were introduced with Student Council escorts. Student Council sponsored the annual Homecoming in the Ellet High Gymnasium. Senior football players escorted the court at the dance while Johnny Nuzum's band provided music for Ellet students and alumni. Queen Carol and her court provided Homecoming '67 with moments that will long be remembered.

Presenting Mary Lou Reed as junior attendant were Jim Haylett and Ken Stanley.

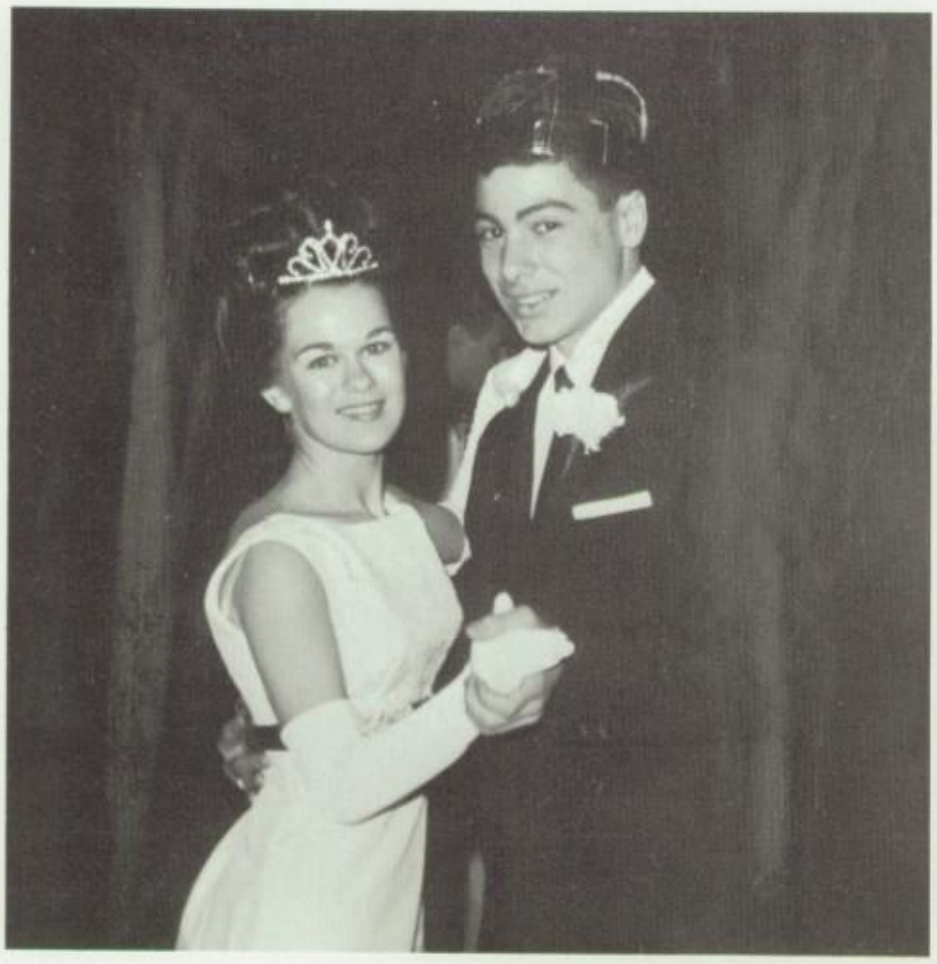
The majorettes saluted queen Carol and her Student Council escort, Ted Esker, as they crossed the field at the fifty-yard line.

Queen Carol's favorite tune, "Misty", was played after the coronation as students and alumni joined the court in the Queen's Dance.

The crown gave royalty to Mike and Marsha.

February 17th marked the day for the annual winter formal sponsored by Student Council. Each class elected their attendants to the court of "Winter Wonderland," while the queen was chosen by all the boys, and the king by the girls.

King Mike and Queen Marsha enjoyed their evening in the spotlight.



Mike and Marsha Reign Over Winter Wonderland

Couples enjoyed dancing to "Moon River," played by Clyde Hopkin's Orchestra.

Sandy and Gary walked in the midst of red, pink, and white decorations.

Maggie, Bert, and Dr. Bradley (Lynn Simmons, Tim McCorkle, and Mike Herhold) exclaim, "Not another two weeks of this, Mr. Whiteside!

Mr. Whiteside (David Hopes) calmly explained to his nurse (Alice Kovalchik) that milk of magnesia turns his stomach.

Banjo (Frank Barbieri) grinned as he did in Lorraine (Denise Reed).

Nosy Neighbors (Debbie Brown and Mary Jane Bell) brought their tokens of goodwill to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Jeanie Garver and Steve Minter).

Class Play Brings Prestige to Drama Department

Mr. Whiteside observed as Maggie (Lyn Simmons) and Bert (Tim McCorkle) insulted each other.

Broadway's long-running play, The Man Who Came To Dinner, was performed by Ellet's junior and senior classes. A fall on a slippery front step caused the world renowned Sheridan Whiteside, to stay a little longer than the proposed dinner invitation from the Stanleys. For two weeks the invalid Mr. Whiteside took over and ran the household with his radio broadcasts, telegrams, interviews, and wheelchair. Even his devoted friends, Lorraine, Banjo, and Beverly, and his secretary, Maggie, became irritated by his egotistical personality. After what seemed like years of confusion and chaos, Mr. Whiteside was finally ready to leave—only to fall again on the same piece of ice.

The Stanley's children (Janet Haylett and Jim Haylett) partook in the excitement by being receptionists and mailmen.

Professor Metz (Frank Motz) brought a city of cochroaches to add to the confusion.

A Touch of Scotland Comes to Ellet in the Broadway Musical "Brigadoon"

The magic of Brigadoon unfolded on Ellet's stage in November of 1967. The town of Brigadoon emerged from its hundred years' sleep just in time to catch two New Yorkers, Tommy and Jeff, as they passed through. They mingled with the townspeople and a love affair developed between Tommy and Fiona. The gaiety of the story continued with drunken brawls and high spirited dancing and singing until the precious day was brought to an end.

Janet McCauliff portrayed Maggie Anderson in addition to being choreographer.

Mr. Lundy (David Hopes) was the only person willing to tell the story of Brigadoon to Fiona (Samuella Lowe) and Tommy (Don Catrone).

Jeannie (Treva Browning) and Charlie (Mike Herhold) listen to the story of a previous wedding day.

Meg Brockie (Marty Lunn) was in constant search for the "Love of Her Life".

Tommy and Charlie tried to prevent Harry Beaton (Tim McCorkle) from leaving Brigadoon.

The hard work to put on a good show is forgotten afterwards at the cast party.

MacConnachy Square was the center of dancing.

Jeff Douglas (Rick Mills) was glad to be back at his favorite bar.

"Run and get'em" was the cry of the men of Brigadoon as they searched for Harry Beaton.

Dress rehearsal consisted of finishing scenery, perfecting dance steps, and mastering musical notes.

Fun and Hard Work Brought Success to the Cast

Tommy dreamed of Brigadoon while Jane (Cathy Gang) dreamed of a wedding.

Art classes helped awaken Brigadoon with scenery and backdrops.

M. Lunn and J. Cernava prove that singing is a physical endeavor.

Into this achievement went many hours of intense study and preparation. They also received an excellent rating at state competition in Lancaster, Ohio. The Symphonic choir and Girl's Glee Club are the foundations choirs that feed into the A Cappella choir. The Boy's Glee Club meets before school to produce quality music. All four groups display fine talent in their many performances throughout the year.

Head majorette G. McCleary displayed her talent as she led the line.

Previous band experience is one of the requirements for becoming a majorette. Together with the band they provide entertainment at pep assemblies and football games. Extensive outside preparation and hard work go into these performances. The pep band is the voluntary part of the band; they play for all the basketball games during intermission.

Band members employed formation marching at football games.

Cheerleader S. Hagerman presented J. McKosky with the "Best Legs" prize.

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders G. May, S. Speicher, N. Wakeman, P. Petric, S. Serves, and J. Haylett led alumni and students in cheering at our Homecoming victory.

In the spring of each year, the senior cheerleaders begin their training program for prospective cheerleaders. After a series of eliminations a reserve squad of six and a varsity squad of six are chosen to promote school spirit. Throughout the year the cheerleaders had bake sales and car washes for the purpose of purchasing new uniforms, pom-poms, and megaphones. They also competed in the city-wide cheerleading contest and gave a fine showing.

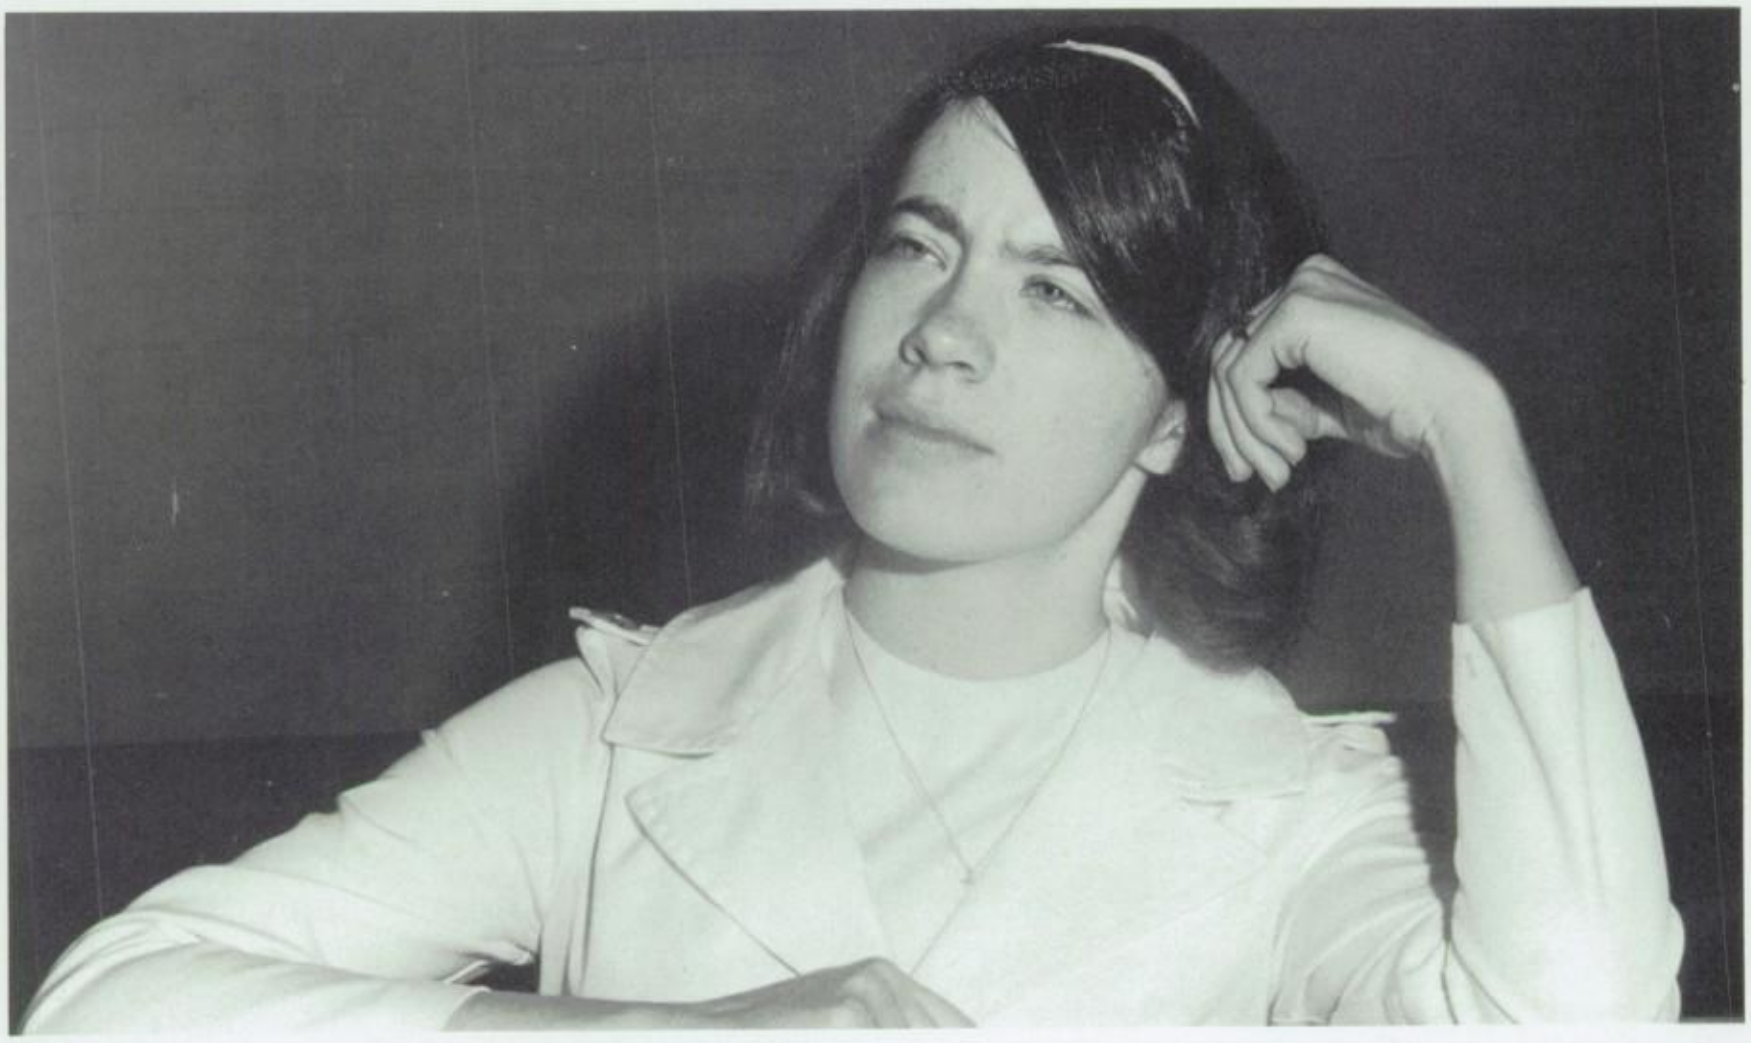
ES FACES FA

Womanhood—Kay Nicholson

Kay Nicholson represents the All-American Girl. She is an honor student and a two year member of National Honor Society. As secretary of Student Council, she served the school in many ways. She was president of Red Cross in her senior year and Vice-President of Spanish Club in her junior year. In her senior year, she assisted Mr. Dishauzi in the daily routine of his office.

Manhood—Ted Esker

Ted Esker has been an active member of Student Council for three years, where he was Vice-President in his junior year. He has shown his interest in sports by running traack and playing soccer. The outstanding highlight of Ted's junior and senior years was serving as his class's president. He is an honor student and gained membership into National Honor Society in his junior year.



Valedictorian—
Kathy St. John

During high school music has played an important part in Kathy's daily activities. She played clarinet in the band and orchestra for two years and was a member of the operetta orchestras. As her class rank signifies, she is a scholar and possesses the qualities necessary for membership in the National Honor Society.

Salutatorian—
Mary Ann Rollence

Talent is displayed in everything that Mary Ann does. In the music field, she sang in Madrigals, A Cappella Choir, and the 1967 operetta, and played in the band. In the acting field, she participated in the 1968 Jr.-Sr. class play. Another facet of her talent came through when she won the title Junior Miss Summit County for her knife-twirling performance. This baton ability also secured her the position of majorette.

One reason for Kay Nicholson's being granted membership into N.H.S. in her junior year was her consistent honor roll standing. She was secretary of both N.H.S. and Student Council, president of Red Cross, and vice-president of Spanish Club.

Being a scholar, Paul Burnam spent much of his time studying but found time to be statistician for the football team. He was also an active member of Spanish Club and was chosen for N.H.S. in his senior year.

. . . And Eight

A Cappella Choir, Madrigals, Symphonic Choir, and Boys' Glee Club are the musical organizations Dave Hopes has participated in the last three years. In journalism, he has left his mark by being editor-in-chief of the Elletian Star in his junior year. He was corresponding secretary of F.T.A. and treasurer of N.H.S. in his senior year. He also had lead parts in the 1967 operetta and the 1968 Jr.-Sr. class play.

As editor of Profile '68, Renee Zahirsky spent much of her time in its preparation. As a prelude to her editorship, Renee was a copy writer for the 1967 Profile. As a member of F.T.A., she was recording secretary and participated in Student Government Day activities. She was also a member of N.H.S. for two years, Student Council in her junior year, sang in the A Cappella Choir, and was in this years operetta.

Kathy Rotilie's main interests in high school have been in music. In her sophomore year, she was a member of Girls' Glee Club and was in A Cappella Choir in her junior and senior years, where she was accompanist. She also accompanied the Madrigals for two years. Her other activities included Student Council, yearbook and newspaper staffs, and N.H.S.

Sports occupied part of Jeanette Soudry's time in high school. When she was a sophomore, she was in G.A.A. and ran track in her sophomore and senior years. In Spanish Club, she was secretary and was an active member of Pep Club for three years.

Make Top Ten Seniors

As a junior, Sue Hagerman was a J.V. cheerleader; as a senior, she was on the varsity squad and competed in the city cheerleaders tournament. Another way in which she boosted spirit was by being an active member of Pep Club. A member of Senior Advisory Council, she also headed, as its chairman, the Prom Committee.

Basketball has been Bob May's favorite sport in high school. In his senior year he played on the varsity team where he was one of the starting five. Because of his skill, he lettered and became a member of the Varsity "E" and was elected as its secretary. He also displayed leadership qualities by being vice-president of N.H.S., vice-president of the senior class, and a member of Student Council.

B. May, Vice-president; T. Esker, president; J. Reed, Secretary; M. Dove, Treasurer. Senior Class officers are sometimes stumped by problems.

Administration Supervises School Activities

An important aspect of high school organization is the administration. Counselors guide tomorrow's leaders; the assistant principal disciplines today's problems. Math and Science Programs Prepare for Tomorrow

Chemistry consists of two phases. One is lecture; the other is laboratory work. Working in lab is a learning and often disastrous experience. In a lab period, sleeves may be burnt, hair may be shortened, or fingers may need bandages.

Compared to chemistry, trigonometry is a harmless course. Although there is no lab work, experiments with triangles are an everyday occurrence.

Self-expression is one of the main objectives for studying English. This can also be accomplished through various courses such as speech and composition. Since proper grammar lends itself to proper speech, it becomes a very important part of the language arts department. Through the use of programmed learning, seniors get their final chance to master grammar before entering the college world. Foreign languages provide a student with a background helpful in mastering his own language.

Tough Defensive Unit Keeps Opponents at Bay

Ellet had a new spirit, a new offense, and a new brand of football this year. The 6—3 record added up to the best season the Orangemen have had since 1961.

The "Razzle-Dazzle" style of the new offense was evident, but fell short in the orangemen's first game of the season as they lost to Kenmore 22—24 on a controversial safety.

The second game was a different story as the orangemen drove 35 yards in the final period to pull out a 15—14 thriller over Ravenna.

Ellet moved into high gear with a passing and running attack that ripped Norton 35—6 for the orangemen's second win of the season.

Everything went right for Kent Roosevelt and wrong for Ellet as the orangemen became unglued and suffered a 71—24 defeat at the hands of the league leaders.

Homecoming ended in a victory as orangemen rebounded quickly from the previous week's shellacking to squash visiting Stow. The offense utilized their "run and shoot" offense to perfection enroute to a 50—16 win.

The "Battle of the Shoe" ended in a victory as Ellet came from behind to beat visiting Springfield 26—15 for the fourth win of the season.

St. Vincent's strategic running proved to be the orangemen's undoing. The final score stood 32—8.

Ellet's 22—0 victory over Tallmadge boosted hopes for the championship.

Our new brand of football paid off again as Ellet closed the season in a 48—0 shut out against Coventry.

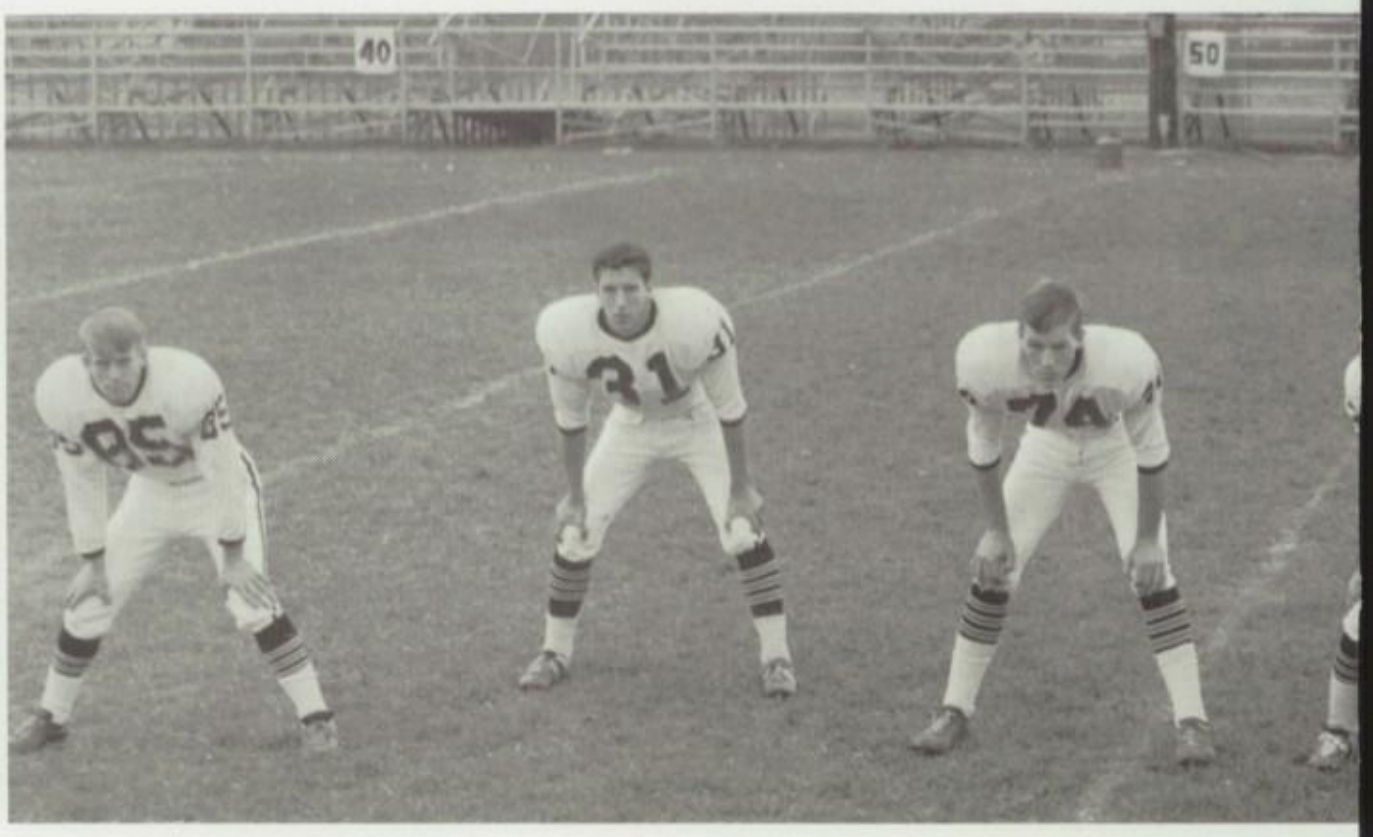
P. Kish, G. Thompson, T. Saccone, R. Stephen, D. Tyree, D. Rife, A. Thomas, B. Collard, J. Beard, B. Reschke, K. Stanley.

Sparked by head cheerleader, L. Simmons, Elletians cheered the Orangemen to another victory.

Ellet's E. Morrison and D. Tyree opened a hole for halfback J. Beard as Coventry defense gave chase.

D. Dutton and L. Marquard handed over the shoe to D. Brown after Ellet's victory over Springfield.

Quarterback J. Buck received some last minute strategy from headcoach B. McLain.



Ellet's J. Beard was brought down by Coventry defenders after pulling in a 26 yard pass.

F. Williams burst up the middle for five yards.

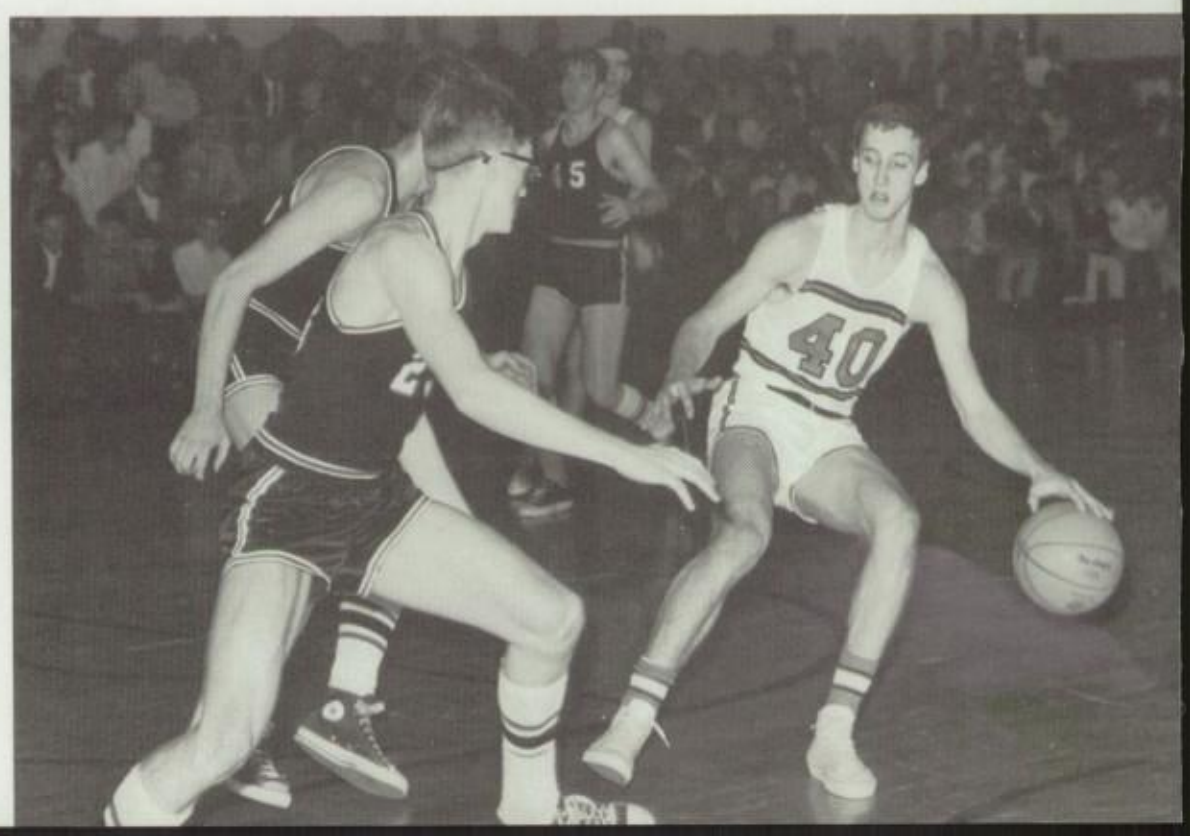
K. Stanley's effort to reach the ball proves futile.

P. Barker uses fancy footwork for a reverse lay-up.

S. Swartzel backtracks to escape Kent guards.



The Ellet press ironed out Crestwood 74—45, East 71—60, and St. Thomas Aquinas 82—68.

A fast start gave the orangemen enough of an edge to beat Stow 89—51. It took a rally in the fourth quarter for the second 52—46 win.

Ravenna wasn't much of a challenge to our orangemen as they rounded up two easy wins, 73—51 and 60—51.

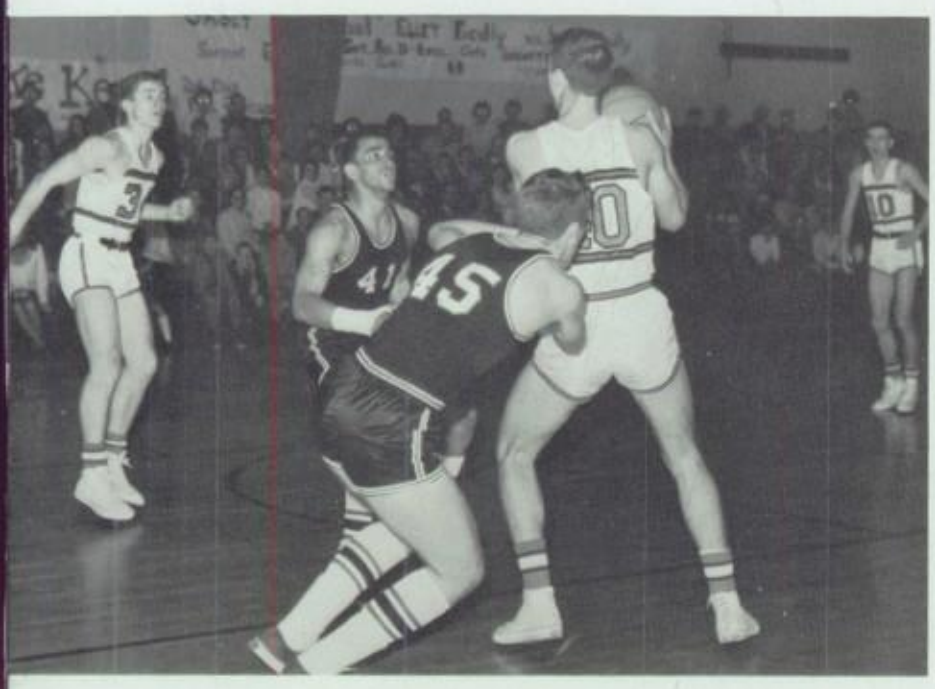
Ellet's overall conditioning and hustling outshined Coventry with 74—55 and 56—46 victories.

In regular scheduled games against Tallmadge, the devils squeaked by, winning 54—50 and 55—53. Ellet was toppled out of the tournament by Tallmadge, 62—52.

Ellet's experienced shooting determined two more victories over Norton, 64—44 and 70—56.

Roosevelt's excellent precision and teamwork overwhelmed the orangemen as they gave the metro champs two wins, 86—62 and 78—60.

The only split of the season went to Springfield, where we lost 69—63, but won 59—46 at home.



S. Swartzel isn't easy to guard as his opponents discovered.

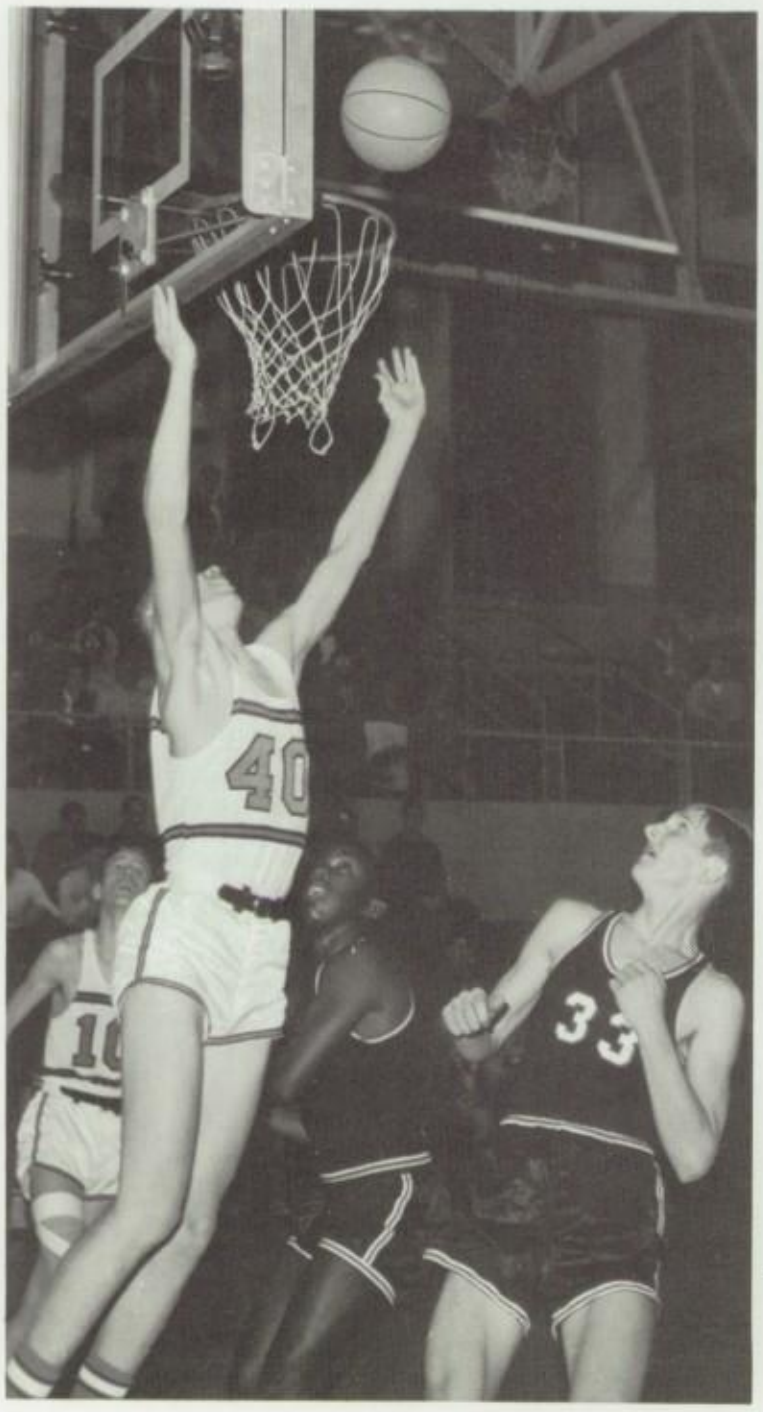
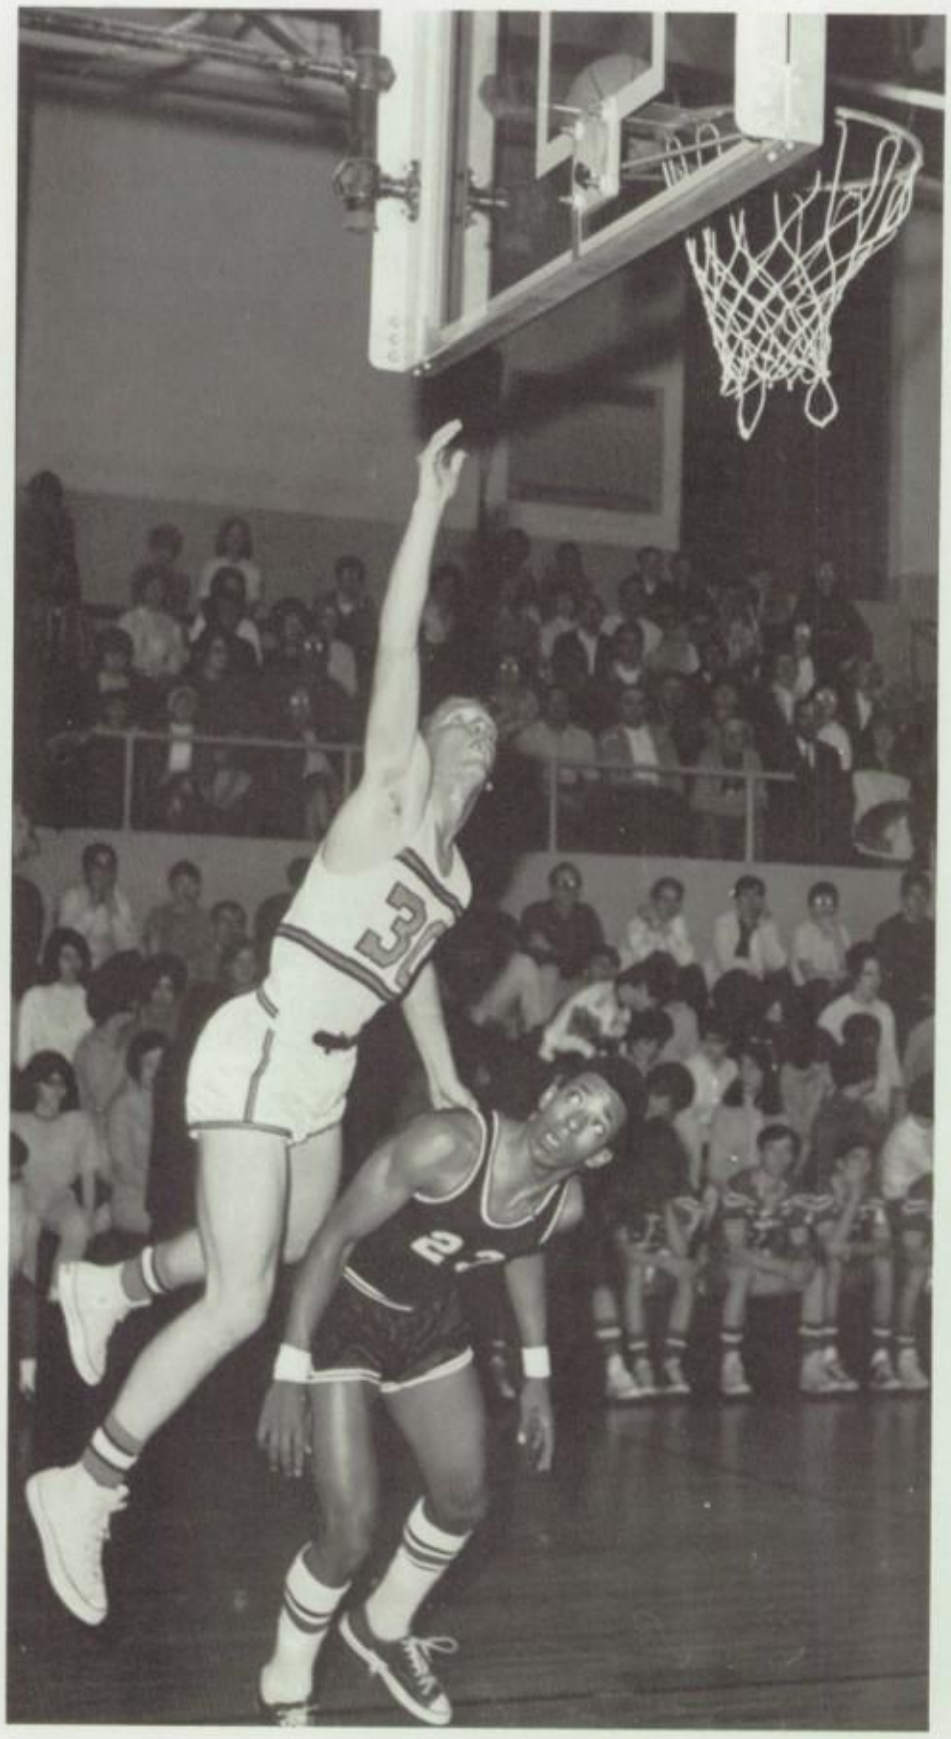
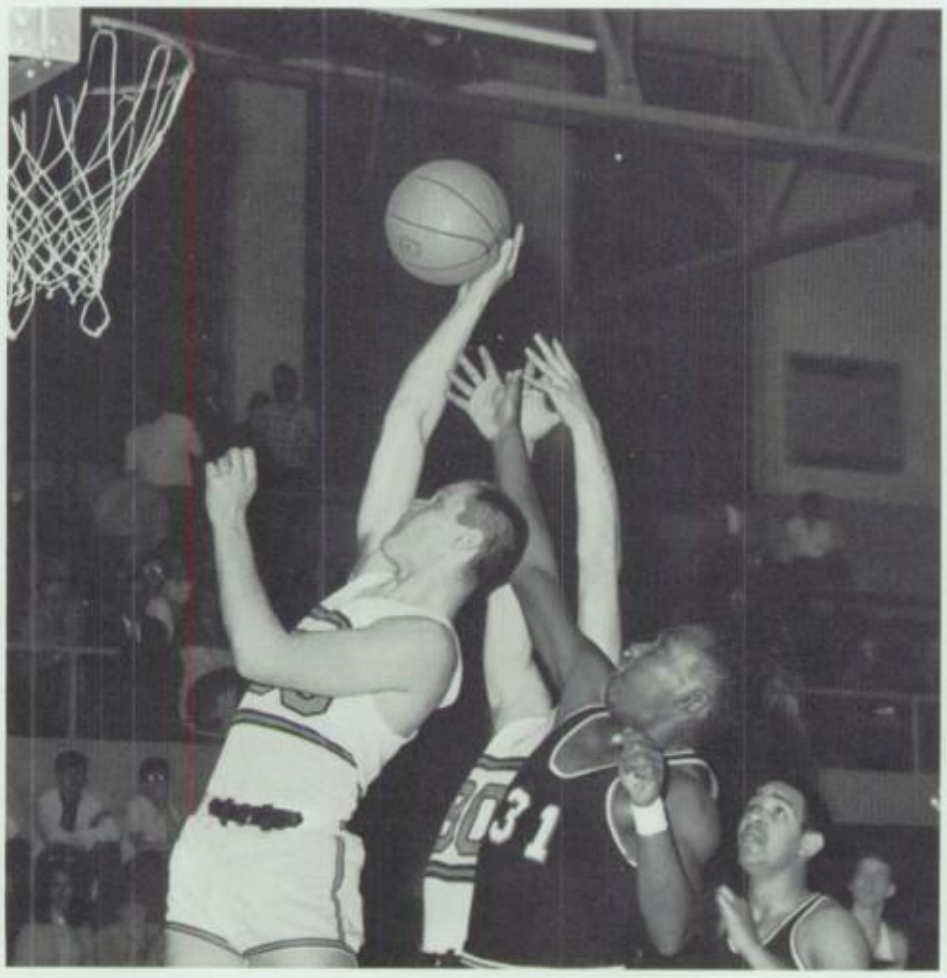
J.V.'s Show Promise in Excellent Season



With only a few seconds left in the game, G. Stewart hits the rim for a final victory.



It was a long reach for R. Stephen's basket.



J. McKosky attempts a difficult shot while Kent looks on.

G. Gillespie puts in an easy one.

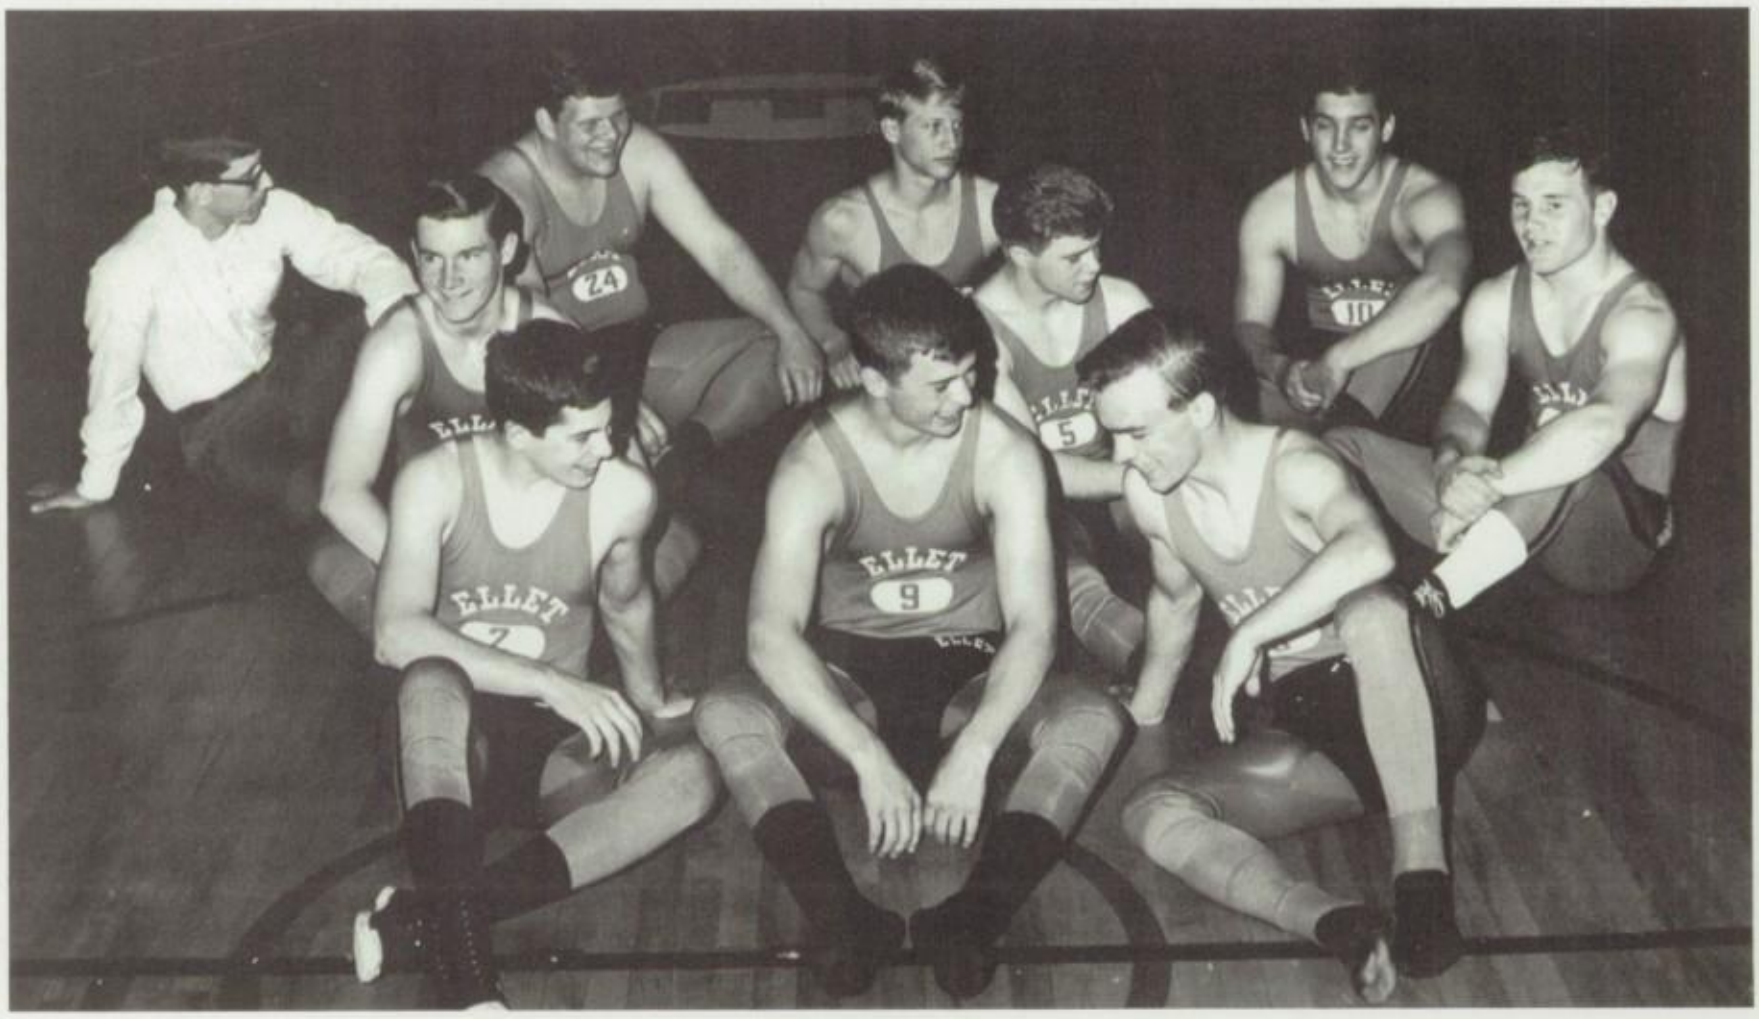
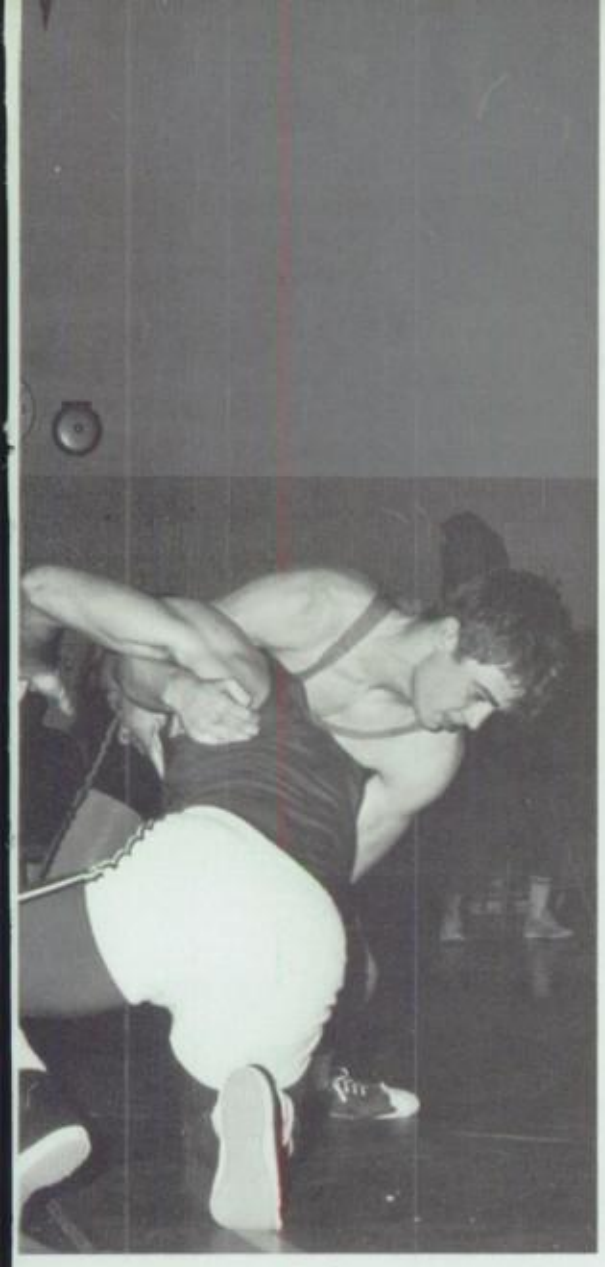
Anguish fills the face of J. Price as he realizes his strength may fail.

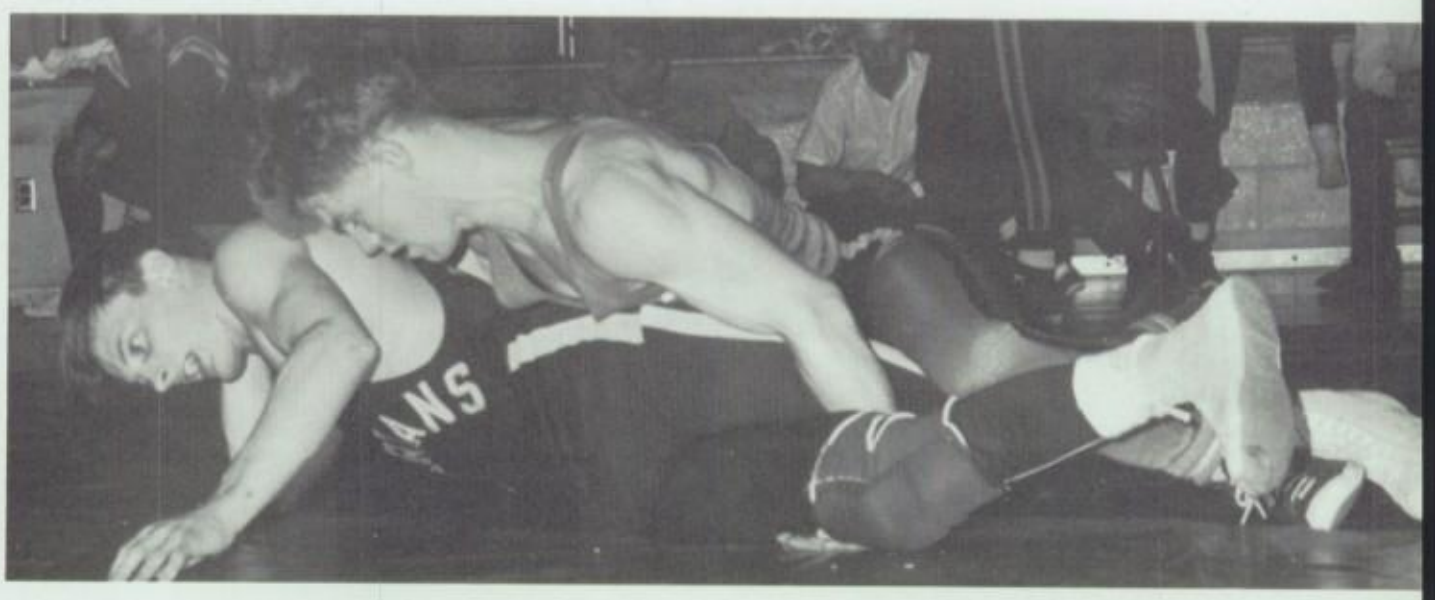
The Ellet wrestling team had its first winning season as wrestling entered its second year as a recognized sport at Ellet. Coach Huth's call for wrestlers ended in a large pre-season turnout. Ellet's team was garbed in brand new uniforms, including new orange and white warm-ups. Much of the team's success can be attributed to its large following and backing and to the team's voluntary assistant coach, M. Kegg. Eleven wrestling letters were passed out at the 1967-68 basketball-wrestling banquet.

T. Fox, E. Morrison, V. Mick, T. Balthis, M. Kegg, D. Tyree, B. Penov, R. Riffle, B. Szeligo, J. Price.





E. Morrison gets a takedown as he piles up points to go on to a 3-point decision.



M. Kegg uses a Navy ride to tire his opponent.

In the fall, the cross country team finished 4th in the league with Larry Lisic placing 2nd in individual competition. The course is set at Metropolitan Park and stretches for 2 miles over hills and through wooded areas.

Each year at Ellet, as in all other metropolitan area high schools sports awards are given to outstanding athletes in the Metro league. Score a goal, to keep a tally, twenty.

Interpreted in this '68 Profile, score is the dynamic change in 20 years of Ellet's history. Since opening her doors in 1948 to the young people of this community, she has developed the character of over 4,000. It is our hope that we have captured the atmosphere and sentiment of Ellet in our 20th year.

My thanks go to Mr. Hayes for his guidance in scheduling picture taking; to Mr. Hukill for his time and experience; to the uncomplaining janitors for the many nights they allowed us to interrupt their work; to Tomei's for their photo assistance; to my mother for her patience about the constant mess in the basement from our weekend work sessions; most of all to Mr. Vladar, our representative from American Yearbook Company, for his invaluable ideas and tremendous help in publishing the '68 Profile; and to the many others who have done scores of favors for us throughout the year.
